

Mandates of IWM Division

- Conduct research on irrigation scheduling, on-farm water management and generation of basic water management information for BARI mandated crops.
- Generate information through research on water quality, agricultural drainage, pumps and tube wells for both ground and surface water.
- Conduct research on saline soil and water management, wastewater management and hill irrigation development.
- Conduct research on groundwater/surface water management, micro irrigation etc.
- To develop different irrigation and water management techniques.
- Promotional activities for transfer of innovated technologies.